CCDO Demolition Supervisor Course Details

This course is 5 days across 5 weeks (1 day per week).

A Demolition Site Supervisor will have 5 years experience in a Topman or Chargehand role and be ready to take on further responsibility for supervising all levels of labourers within a demolition site.

A CCDO Demolition Supervisor might be responsible for deputising for the Site Manager on larger Demolition Sites depending on the activity or scope of the works or may run their own sites autonomously, reporting into a regional demolition Site Manager. The CCDO Supervisor does not get involved in the physical demolition activity unless demonstrating a technique to an apprentice/operative.

The five-day CCDO Supervisor course can now be paired with SMSTS – saving five days and £465.
